

APPLICATION FOR A LIONEL MURPHY ENDOWMENT POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Terms & Conditions for the Lionel Murphy Endowment Postgraduate Scholarship

1. A number of postgraduate scholarships are awarded annually by the Lionel Murphy Foundation Endowment. These scholarships are known as the Lionel Murphy Endowment Postgraduate Scholarship, the precise number to be awarded each year and the method of payment, is recommended by the Advisory Committee.
2. The scholarships are tenable at an Australian or overseas tertiary institution for one year only and are currently valued at (AUD) $40,000 each per annum.
3. Applicants must be Australian citizens, or permanent residents who have been granted permanent residency by 30 November of the year prior to this application AND in the case of permanent residents, have lived in Australia continuously for the previous 12 months.
4. Applicants should have completed, or be about to complete, an undergraduate degree in science, law or legal studies, or other appropriate discipline from an Australian tertiary institution, and intend to pursue a postgraduate degree in science, law or legal studies, or other appropriate discipline.
5. Applicants must remain in full-time enrolment for the duration of the scholarship.
6. Preference is given to applicants who propose to study any, or all, of the following:
 - a. The law and the legal system in a social context and their practical application;
 - b. Science and/or the law as a means of attaining social justice and human rights and as vehicles for change;
 - c. International law as a developing force for peace and as a means of achieving the rule of law in all nations.
 - d. Science as a tool for social benefit, particularly in meeting the needs of those most disadvantaged within society.
 - e. Other disciplines, where the proposed nature and area of study are likely to promote the goals of social justice and benefit for the disadvantaged.
7. Scholars are required to give regular interim progress reports and to provide a full report to the Lionel Murphy Foundation Endowment Advisory Committee on completion of their studies, of their work and other activities undertaken as a Lionel Murphy Foundation Scholar.
8. Scholars are obliged to immediately inform the Lionel Murphy Foundation Endowment Advisory Committee if they are awarded any other scholarship applicable to the study supported by the Lionel Murphy Foundation Scholarship.
9. Scholars understand that the receipt of another scholarship, award, funding, or the acceptance of paid employment, may lead to the reduction or withdrawal of the Lionel Murphy Foundation Scholarship and to the obligation to repay moneys to the Endowment.
10. Scholars are expected and encouraged to publish the results of their studies, and to acknowledge in such publication/s the support of the Lionel Murphy Foundation Endowment.
11. Scholarships are offered subject to confirmation of acceptance of the terms and conditions attaching to the scholarship, and subject to there being no alteration to:
 - a. your study plans, particularly your course focus;
 - b. the subject of your research and/or thesis;
 - c. your intended place/s of study;
 - d. your financial circumstances;as stated in your application for the postgraduate scholarship.

Notes to applicants for a Lionel Murphy Endowment Postgraduate Scholarship

These notes will assist you in preparing your application, as well as determining your eligibility to submit an application for a Lionel Murphy Endowment Postgraduate Scholarship.

Applications must be completed on the online application form and submitted by email to lionelmurphy.law@anu.edu.au by the closing date. Handwritten applications will not be accepted.

A minimum of two references, preferably academic, must be provided. Failure to receive two references by the closing date will render the application ineligible for consideration. Referee reports should either be attached to your application with other relevant documentation (transcripts, etc) or may be emailed directly by the referee to lionelmurphy.law@anu.edu.au. Reports must be received by the closing date. We will not be able to confirm whether or not all reports have been received.

Scanned coloured copies of academic results, and birth certificates, Australian passports, naturalisation certificates or residency visas must be legible.

Applicants must answer all questions and, if necessary, append additional pages in the same format.

The Advisory Committee will give low priority to applications from:

- a. Applicants who are established professional full-time academics;
- b. Applicants who are established full-time professional legal persons;
- c. Applicants with other means from which to finance their own postgraduate studies.

Note: Applications for additional assistance with travel expenses will not be considered and the Endowment will not entertain requests for supplementation from its funds for scholarships after they have been granted. Applications for scholarships where no institution is involved will not be considered.

- > Applications close 30 November.
- > No late or incomplete applications will be accepted.
- > However, you may advise examination results which you receive after the closing date.
- > Faxed copies of applications are not acceptable, the application must be submitted by email.
